UPCOMING MASS SCHEDULE CHANGE

On Saturday, May 18, there will be no 9:00 a.m. daily Mass. On this day, St. Andrew Parish is blessed to host the Diocese of Columbus Ordination Mass and we will be preparing the church throughout the day. Please keep the newly ordained clergy members in your prayers.

This change is for ONE WEEK ONLY. The 9:00 a.m. Mass will return on Saturday, May 25.

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

On Saturday, May 18, the Priesthood Ordination Mass for the Diocese of Columbus will take place at St. Andrew Church at 10:00 a.m. Bishop Fernandes will ordain five men as Priests in the solemn Rite of Ordination. The candidates are Tyler Carter, Michael Haemmerle, Daniel Colby, Jason Fox, and David Johnstone.

St. Andrew is pleased and honored to host this very important and solemn event in our Diocese of Columbus! Please be aware that there is no 9:00 a.m. parish Mass on Saturday, May 18. The church will be in use to prepare for the Ordination Mass, which begins at 10:00 a.m. Please note: The Ordination is a Diocesan event, not a parish event.

The ordination of priests for the Diocese is a happy occasion. It gives us hope and fills us with gratitude that our church is blessed with priestly vocation, and that these men being ordained will devote their lives to ministering to God's people. It causes us to give thanks also for those who have supported their vocation and helped make their ordination possible: their parents, families, teachers, pastors, mentors, and all who encouraged them and prayed for them. And also all those, who like many of you, have supported priestly vocations through your donations to The Appeal or the special collection for seminarian support "A Good and Growing Need." We see all of those efforts and sacrifices bearing fruit as these men are ordained and begin their priestly service. I also call upon you to continue to support priestly vocations in the Diocese of Columbus, through prayer, encouragement, and especially through your generous gifts to The Appeal 2024.

This weekend, we celebrate Mother's Day, when we revere our mothers and those who have a maternal role in our lives. We honor them and their holy vocation of motherhood. May God bless and consecrate all mothers, living and deceased, and give them honors and rewards befitting their dignity and importance!

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

WELCOME OUR BLESSED MOTHER INTO YOUR HOME AND YOUR HEART!

During the month of May, we pay special honor to our Blessed Mother. In 1965, Pope Paul VI shared, "During this month, Christians, both in church and in the privacy of the home, offer up to Mary from their hearts an especially fervent and loving homage of prayer and veneration. In this month, too, the benefits of God's mercy come down to us from her throne in greater abundance."

We ask you to prayerfully consider welcoming the pilgrim statue of Our Lady of Fatima into your home to pray the Rosary with your family.

A new schedule has been posted! Each week begins on Saturday at 5:30 p.m. and ends on the following Saturday at 4:30 p.m. Statue drop-off and pick-up is in the St. Andrew Chapel in the chairs. Use the QR code here or our SignUpGenius page to view upcoming available dates and learn more at tinyurl.com/ourlady2024.

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me” A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✦ Part 27: The Creed ✦

“I believe in one God...” We all likely recognize these words as the beginning of the Creed which we say together after the homily. Besides needing to stand up and stretch our legs after the homily, why do we have the Creed?

What is the Creed?

According to the glossary of our Catechism, a creed is “a brief, normative summary statement or profession of Christian faith, e.g., the Apostles’ Creed, the Nicene Creed. The word ‘Creed’ comes from the Latin Credo, meaning ‘I believe,’ with which the Creed begins” (CCC, Glossary, s.v. “Creed”). As we will see, a creed is a collection of core truths in which we believe. As the Catechism teaches, there have been many professions of faith that have come from Church Councils or from certain individuals. “None of the creeds from the different stages in the Church’s life can be considered superseded or irrelevant. They help us today to attain and deepen the faith of all times by means of the different summaries made of it” (CCC, no. 193). The Catechism continues that two creeds have a special place in the Church’s life: the Apostles’ Creed and the Nicene Creed. “The Apostles’ Creed is so called because it is rightly considered to be a faithful summary of the apostles’ faith” (CCC, no. 194). “The Niceno-Constantinopolitan or Nicene Creed draws its great authority from the fact that it stems from the first two ecumenical Councils (in 325 and 381). It remains common to all the great Churches of both East and West to this day” (CCC, no. 195). Although either the Apostles’ Creed or the Nicene Creed can be used in the Mass, many of us probably most often hear the Nicene Creed being used.

A Statement of Faith and Renewal of Belief

How did the Creed enter the Mass? As the Diocese of Peoria instructs, “The Creed, or Profession of Faith, stems from the Ancient Church. This statement of belief was not originally written to be recited at Mass; it was rather intended as a prerequisite ‘contract’ for adult baptism. One would profess these essential truths of the faith before being admitted into the Church through baptism. Eventually, the Creed would be inserted into the Mass as it is today” (A Study of the Mass, p. 9). Fr. Guy Oury says, “The Fathers of the Church recommended that Christians recite [the Creed] daily, morning and evening, as a renewal of their faith and safeguard against doctrinal error” (The Mass, p. 71). How many of you say the Creed when you get out of bed each morning?! Jokes aside, the Fathers of the Church were really on to something here. Because the Creed is a great summary of the truths of the Faith, especially the Holy Trinity (more on that to come), knowing the Creed is a wonderful way to know some of the basics of the faith and to keep them fresh in our minds and hearts.

For Reflection:

1. Per Father Luke’s advice, consider beginning and/or ending your day by reciting the Creed prayerfully.
2. Consider gathering with others to study the Creed, using the Catechism or another resource. One option is to study one line of the Creed each week in preparation for participation in Mass on Sunday.
