MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The month of May presses onward! This is Memorial Day weekend and Monday, May 27, is Memorial Day. The school year is quickly coming to a close. The last day of school for St. Andrew is Thursday, May 30, then it's "School's Out!" This is a happy time of the year as we look forward to a relaxing and carefree summer. I know I am looking forward to my annual vacation next month (I will be away from the parish for vacation June 10 to June 22). I hope you have some relaxation planned for yourself and your families this summer. But please do not relax your prayers or your practice of the Catholic faith. Be sure to attend Sunday Mass, even when you are traveling. To get ready for summer, let's get in practice by exercising our prayer. I suggest we remember and pray for the following intentions this week:

- For the five newly ordained priests of the Diocese of Columbus.
- For those who are graduating at any level.
- For the safety of all travelers.
- For protection from storms and severe weather.
- For our departed loved ones that they may rest in peace.
- In thanksgiving to God for the beauty of the world and for blessings we have received.

These are only a few of the things we could and should pray for this week. There are many other possibilities. May this Memorial Day and the season it ushers in be a time of not only relaxation, but also for remembrance and mindful prayer.

Happy Memorial Day and happy summer!

Your pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

P.S. Thanks to all who have pledged to The Appeal 2024, thus far. Let's all get on board and make a gift to The Appeal, so we can quickly reach our goal!

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me” A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✠ Part 29: The Creed as Statement of Faith in the Trinity ✠

Having considered the Creed in general, let's take a closer look at the contents of this statement of our Faith. As we look through the phrases, the Creed is very clearly laying out the main truths about the Holy Trinity, our belief in One God in Three Persons. As our current Catechism quotes from the Roman Catechism (or the Catechism of the Council of Trent), explaining “The Creed is divided into three parts: ‘the first part speaks of the first divine Person and the wonderful work of creation; the next speaks of the second divine Person and the mystery of his redemption of men; the final part speaks of the third divine Person, the origin and source of our sanctification’ (CCC, no. 190).

The Three Parts of the Creed

Charles Belmonte expands this introduction to the three parts of the Creed:

- A confession of faith in God, the Father, our Creator, maker of heaven and earth, of all [things visible and invisible].
- A confession of faith in Christ, our Lord. He is God, who by the power of the Spirit became incarnate [of] the Virgin Mary and was made man. Then we focus on Christ's Passion and Death on the Cross; his Resurrection, Ascension, and participation in the judgment to reign forever, as it was announced by the angel to the Virgin Mary (Lk. 1:33).

– A confession of faith in the means of salvation, supplied by God, the Holy Spirit, the giver of supernatural life. We declare how he works through the Church (Understanding the Mass, p. 100-101).

Continuing through the last part of the Creed, Belmonte writes, “[I] believe in one holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. [The word] catholic means ‘universal’—a reminder that the Church exists throughout the world and embraces the entire revelation of God... The Church is apostolic because she traces her origins back to Christ through the apostles and always teaches the message the apostles received from him” (Understanding the Mass, p. 101). The Church is one and holy because it is founded by Christ and led by the Holy Spirit toward the unity and holiness that Jesus calls all Christians to live. We call this list the Four Marks of the Church. These characteristics are like landmarks or distinguishing features that help us to know the one true Church of Jesus.

Words to Speak... and Believe

As we go through each phrase, we are reviewing the truths we believe in, and we are also invited into a reflection on the ways that God has made himself known to us. We recall the steps of salvation history and the moment when God dwells among us. We remember the ultimate gift of God’s love and the gift of the Holy Spirit who helps unite us and strengthen us for life in that love. As Belmonte concludes:

“The Creed is none other than the marvelous history of God’s love for us... In these times of doctrinal confusion, we should be careful not to compromise the content of our faith, not even in small things... It is worthwhile, above all, to decide to take our Christian life seriously. When we recite the Creed, we state that we believe in God the Father Almighty, in his Son, Jesus Christ, who died and rose again, and in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life. We affirm that the Church—one, holy, catholic, and apostolic—is the body of Christ enlivened by the Holy Spirit. We rejoice in the forgiveness of sins and in the hope of the resurrection. But do those words penetrate to the depths of our own heart? Or do they remain only on our lips?” (Understanding the Mass, p. 102).

We say the Creed often, and many of us can likely follow along without even really thinking about the words. But wouldn’t it be fruitful to truly ask ourselves what we are saying? What truths are we proclaiming together? What do we mean when we say those words?

For Reflection:

1. Take time to reflect on each of the four marks of the Church (one, holy, catholic, apostolic), using the Catechism or another resource. Consider how you experience the unity, holiness, universality, and living tradition of the Church in your own life.
2. In your reflection on the Creed, which line(s) or phrase(s) most stand out to you? Pray with these sections and invite the Holy Spirit to lead you to deeper understanding of the mysteries of our Faith.
