MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I have returned from my two-week vacation as of June 22, and I am happy to report that I had a restful and uneventful time away. It is good to be back here at beautiful St. Andrew. This past week, many of our children and young people participated in SACRED (St. Andrew Childrens' Recreation and Education Days). In years past, it seemed that SACRED always coincided with my vacation, but this year, I was able to drop in and observe some of the activities. It gave me great joy to see the children having fun while growing closer to God.

I want to bring you up-to-date on some staffing changes taking place at St. Andrew Parish. Tina White has resigned her position as Director of Religious Education for St. Andrew Parish and has taken a position at Bishop Hartley High School as a teacher of Theology. I wish her all the best!

Kathy Dowler has been appointed as the Director of Religious Education. She has been with St. Andrew for many years and leads the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program. I am grateful to her for taking on these additional responsibilities.

Maria Moore has stepped down as our coordinator for Youth Ministry. Maria has served energetically and I am very grateful to her. We will take a year off from youth ministry for the coming year and evaluate the future direction of this program.

Finally, Al Hamrick, our long-time custodian and maintenance staffer, has retired. I always depended on Al to have the church unlocked early in the morning, and for many other things also, especially around Christmas and Easter. I wish Al a happy retirement!

I wish all of you a safe and happy Fourth of July. God bless you and God bless the U.S.A.!

Your pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

P.S. This is a friendly reminder that the lighting project I've mentioned previously will begin around the middle of July. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause. Watch future bulletins for more details about the process and any changes to the daily Mass location.

TODAY IS FIFTH SUNDAY! This is the time to use your GOLD ENVELOPE or make an online donation to benefit those served by the Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP). To donate online, visit the parish giving site at osvhub.com/st-andrew-parish/funds and choose St. Vincent de Paul from the gift information menu. You can also mail a check to the Parish Office: 1899 McCoy Road, Columbus, OH 43220. Make checks payable to St. Andrew/SVdP.

THANK YOU to all who generously donated clothing through the clothing collection bin in the parlor. The Mass

"Do This in Remembrance of Me" A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

Part 33: The Setup of the Altar

After the Creed and Intercessions, for which we used a standing posture of prayer, we sit down while the preparations for the Liturgy of the Eucharist take place. As the Diocese of Peoria teaches, "Before Jesus sat down with his disciples to celebrate the Last Supper, he instructed that various preparations be made. Preparations such as securing and preparing a room, making bread and purchasing wine all needed to be done before this sacred event could take place. The same is true when we celebrate Mass... Typically, there is music during the preparations—either instrumental, by the choir, or a common hymn. The music at this point should assist in our proximate preparation for the Liturgy of the Eucharist" ("A Study of the Mass," p. 11). Since we are about to participate in the celebration of the Lord's Supper, music can help us be more prayerfully prepared and in the right mindset. Have you ever noticed that songs at this point in the Mass are often slower in tempo and more flowing in words? No doubt, this is to help prepare us for the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Singing and listening to meditation-type music can help us prepare to pray and meditate on the most beautiful mystery in front of us: Jesus Christ's one perfect sacrifice before the Father is made present to his spouse, the Church, and the bread and the wine are changed into the Body and Blood of Christ.

In complement to the preparation for the people, what about everything the celebrant and the servers are doing in the sanctuary? The General Instruction for the Roman Missal reminds us that certain items are needed for the Liturgy of the Eucharist (GIRM, 117-118). Let's take a quick look at each material:

1. Two to six lighted candles
2. A crucifix on or near the altar (the altar should be covered by a white cloth)
3. The Missal (the big red book with all the prayers the priest says). This book contains words in black and red ink. The words in black are the words that the priest says and the words in red are instructions for the priest on what to do (how and where to stand, how to speak, what arm gestures to use, etc.).
4. Corporal: This is a square white cloth that is unfolded and placed on the altar. Since it comes from the word meaning body, it makes sense that the Body and Blood of Christ will become present upon this cloth during Mass.
5. Chalice: This special cup is made of precious metals (generally gold-plated or silver-plated) because we use the most precious materials we have to honor Jesus truly there in his most precious Body and Blood.
6. Purificator: This is a long and narrower white cloth that is used to wipe the rim of the chalice.
7. Paten: This item which looks like a small plate is also generally gold-plated or silver-plated and is used for the large host which the priest holds up during the Eucharistic Prayer. Note: In some places, you might see a deeper gold-plated dish used which is typically called a dish paten.
8. Ciborium: This is another gold or silver-plated item that has a matching lid and which holds the smaller hosts. When hosts are reserved in the tabernacle, they are typically kept in a ciborium.

There are other materials you might see depending on the local parish customs:

- Pall: This is a square white cloth stiffened with cardboard that is used to cover the chalice. This cover prevents flies, insects, dust, etc., from getting into the chalice.
- Chalice veil: This is a cloth cover for the chalice. It not only can protect the chalice when not in use, but it also helps heighten our sense of mystery by "veiling" the chalice from our sight until the time for the Most Blessed Sacrament draws near. Chalice veils can match the color of the priest's vestments or can always be white in color.
- Burse: This "pouch," which often matches the chalice veil/vestments in color, is placed on top of the chalice veil and is used for the keeping of corporals.
- Communion patens: Plates with handles that the servers hold during Communion. These patens are meant to help catch any particles of the Eucharist which may fall from a Host or help to catch a Host which accidentally falls.

As you can see, there are many items we use for the Liturgy of the Eucharist, each with purpose and meaning. No wonder the altar servers sometimes seem to be reviewing a checklist in their minds to make sure we have everything we need!

For Reflection:

1. Next time you participate in Mass, pay more attention to the preparation of the altar. While remaining prayerful, see if you can identify the materials Father Luke described and see what role each plays as the Liturgy of the Eucharist continues.
2. Reflect on an excerpt from St. Thérèse of Lisieux's My Longings before Jesus Hidden in his Prison of Love (featured in the Heart of the Revival newsletter on December 1, 2022), in which she compares herself to various materials used in relation to the Eucharist.
