MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Festival week is here! The much anticipated Festival at St. Andrew will get underway this Friday, Aug. 16, and Saturday, Aug. 17, from 5:00 p.m. to midnight each day. Get ready to enjoy all of your favorite rides, games, entertainment, food, and drinks! The festival committee members and an army of helpers have been busy for weeks planning, organizing, getting permits, recruiting volunteers, selling raffle tickets, getting sponsors, and much more. All that hard work is about to bear fruit. I am grateful for all those who become festival sponsors, donate items to the silent auction, bake cakes and other treats, and contribute other goods and services to help us get ready for the annual extravaganza! My dog, Mabel, has once again sponsored a bench for this year's festival and she has been a proud sponsor of the Festival at St. Andrew for years. I look forward to fun and good times, and seeing all of you at the festival this coming Friday and Saturday evenings.

I also want to mention that we have two expensive capital replacement projects underway – the chiller replacement/HVAC upgrade in the cafeteria wing of the school, and the LED lighting project in the church. The HVAC project is almost complete, and the lighting project is delayed somewhat because needed parts are on backorder. My big concern was the cost of these projects (over $800,000) and because we needed to use our reserves to pay for these. I was overjoyed, therefore, when I learned of several large donations from parishioners who specifically wanted to help offset these extraordinary expenses. These donors are not looking for recognition, so I will let them remain anonymous. To date, their donations amount to $130,000! Thank you to these generous benefactors (you know who you are). I hope more parishioners will do the same!

Finally, I want to give you an update on my dog, Mabel. As you know, Mabel is a miniature dachshund and my constant companion since she was a puppy. Mabel is now 15 1/2 years old, she is in pretty good health, but she is feeling her age. Last Friday morning, I was returning from a day away in Ada. These days, I often have to stop once or twice to let Mabel out during the course of the 90-minute drive. That morning, she started whining and fussing as soon as we got on the road, so I stopped at one of our usual roadside “rest areas,” and pulled into the gravel parking lot of the Hillcrest Bowling Alley on the west edge of Kenton. I parked and let Mabel out. That's when I noticed a tiny kitten on the step by the back door of the bowling alley. The kitten was definitely lost or abandoned, and was meowing loudly. It came running toward us as if it had been waiting for us. I picked it up and noticed it was skinny. There are no houses close by nor any sign of other cats or kittens. After several minutes of deliberation about what to do, I decided to rescue this kitten as I didn't think it would survive if I left it there. I put the kitten in the car and brought it back to St. Andrew thinking I would try to find a home for it. However, this kitten is very affectionate and is literally attached to me. Mabel has a companion now, also. They are adjusting to each other quite nicely (see picture).

Let us pray for good weather for the festival and may you have a happy and safe week ahead!

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

P.S. Don't forget – the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is Thursday, Aug. 15, and it's a Holy Day of Obligation.

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me”

A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✚ Part 36: Bread and Wine ✚

Continuing our review of the Offertory and the gifts of bread and wine, we take time to address a few common questions.

Why do we use bread and wine and not something else?

During my years on campus, I recall meeting a student who had grown up in an Asian country. He said that, early on in his Christian journey, he would think of “daily bread” as a portion of rice, since that is what he was most familiar with. His question was a practical one: Why didn’t the Church adapt what was used for Mass as the Church spread throughout the world? For a short answer, the Church has stayed consistent with what Jesus used at the Last Supper. As Fr. Guy Oury says, bread and wine would have been “daily fare” for the people of the Holy Land and “were particularly suitable to convey [Christ nourishing us with true and everlasting life] because they were typical nourishment. Obviously, Jews at the time of Christ consumed other food and drink besides bread and wine, and indeed, on the table of the Last Supper where the Passover meal was celebrated, lay a lamb... But Christ made a choice of bread and wine, and the Church has scrupulously conformed to what he instituted, using only bread from wheat and wine from grapes. The Church has never felt itself authorized to modify what it has received from the Lord himself" (The Mass, p. 78). This has been true as the Church spread to places where different grains as well as other drinks were common. In many places, missionaries brought with them wheat seeds and grape seedlings so that what was needed for the wine and hosts could be grown locally.

Why do we use unleavened bread?

Similar to the use of wheat, Fr. Guy Oury observes that the Church wishes to honor the tradition handed down to us. "At the time of Christ the ancient feast of Azymes had been merged with the feast of Passover. On the eve of Passover unleavened breads were prepared to commemorate what had happened when the Hebrews fled from Egypt: in their haste they could not have their dough leavened... At the Last Supper (according to the Synoptic Gospels, but not John) Jesus observed the Passover ritual, which called for unleavened bread" (The Mass, p. 80). We should note that in some places in the early Latin Church, as well as still currently in Eastern Rite and Eastern Orthodox Churches, leavened bread is used for the Eucharist. Each Rite within our Church is able to determine certain details for the celebration of the Mass. However, the core elements of the Mass will always be present and consistent.

What about the wine?

"The symbolism of wine is as rich as that of bread... Among Jews wine conveyed the idea of feasting and rejoicing... Wine has no doubt become less meaningful than it was [for Christians of earlier times. For them, wine was] thought to nourish the body, restore health, prevent sickness, help digestion, maintain bodily temperature, clarify ideas, dilate the arteries, rest the brain, halt congestion of the liver, chase away the 'blues,' as well as being useful for washing and cleansing wounds" (The Mass, p. 81-82). While the natural elements of wine may do these things for the body, doesn't the Blood of Christ do so many more powerful things for body and soul?

Lastly, why do we call the bread we use at Mass "hosts?"

Charles Belmonte teaches that "originally, 'host' (from Latin hostire, to strike) referred to any animal about to be sacrificed" (Understanding the Mass, p. 112). Since the bread is the offering made for the sacrifice of the Mass, it is fittingly called by the name host. To be proper and reverent, after the bread has been changed into the Body and Blood of Jesus, hosts should be called "Consecrated Hosts" or "Sacred Hosts," out of honor for Jesus Christ, who is now truly present.

Next time, we will consider the question: Does it seem like sometimes the priest is talking to himself up at the altar? Let's find out what he is praying!

For Reflection:

1. Pray with Psalm 104 in praise of God's provision for human needs, including "wine to gladden their hearts... and bread to sustain the human heart" (Ps. 104:15). Consider the life-giving role bread and wine have played in your life.
2. Have you ever baked bread or made wine? Reflect on your experience of each phase of this process. If you have the opportunity, visit a bakery or vineyard to learn more about bread and wine.
3. Some religious communities make hosts. Find out if anyone in your diocese facilitates these experiences, and see if you can visit to observe the process.
