MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend is the First Sunday of Advent. Advent begins on December 1 this year, so we know that there are only 24 days of Advent until Christmas. Do you remember those reminders we used to see in the newspapers telling us "only XX number of shopping days until Christmas"? Well, our calendar is telling us that we have only 23 days left to prepare ourselves for the coming of Christ among us.

I want us all to have a peaceful and prayerful Advent, and to use this time to prepare our hearts to welcome Christ. For this reason, I strongly urge you to come to the Advent Evening of Reflection at St. Andrew with Fr. Thomas Blau, O.P. It's taking place this evening, Sunday, Dec. 1, at 7:00 p.m., in the church. It's important that we use these precious few days of Advent wisely, and to spiritually prepare to experience the mystery of God with us. So, you won't want to miss this evening of reflection.

May God bless you all this holy season of Advent.

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

ST. ANDREW SMART GIVING: MAXIMIZE YOUR IMPACT AND LOWER YOUR TAXES

As 2024 draws to a close, now is the time to lower your tax burden while supporting St. Andrew Parish. If you are 70 1/2 years or older, you can take advantage of the Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD), which allows you to make a tax-free transfer of up to $105,000 from your traditional or Roth IRA directly to a qualified charity like St. Andrew Parish. The QCD can be used to contribute to St. Andrew endowment funds, helping ensure our sustainability for years to come. IRA rollovers can take up to a month to process, so now is the time to start your year-end giving. Act quickly and fulfill your charitable intentions and reduce your taxable income for 2024.

For more information on IRA rollovers or other ways you can support our parish endowment funds, contact Christy Steffy at 614-443-8893, ext. 1100, or CSteffy@Catholic-Foundation.org.

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me” A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✙ Part 48: The Epiclesis ✙

Continuing now with the individual parts of the Eucharistic Prayer, we come to a really action-packed moment: the Epiclesis. What is the “Epiclesis”? How do we even pronounce it? (A common pronunciation is Epp-eh-lee-sis.) Charles Belmonte teaches, “In the Epiclesis, the priest requests God the Father to send the Holy Spirit so that the bread and wine offered may become Christ’s Body and Blood and so we may be able to celebrate the Eucharistic mystery, and to make all the effects of the sacrament operative in us. At the same time, the priest extends his hands, palms downward, over the chalice and host, and traces the sign of the cross over them. With this gesture, he asks God to pour his blessing over the gifts offered and to turn them into his Son’s body and blood” (Understanding the Mass, p. 135). That is a lot of action for a few quick words! This is an important moment because it gives us notice about what is soon to come: the changing of the bread and wine into the very Body and Blood of Jesus.

Why Bells Are Sometimes Used during the Epiclesis

According to the Diocese of Peoria, “The Epiclesis is the invocation of the Holy Spirit upon the gifts to be offered... It is through the power of the Holy Spirit who descended upon the apostles at Pentecost that the priest, through his hands, offers the human gifts and earthly elements to be consecrated into Godly gifts and heavenly realities. Often we may hear the 'sanctus bell' to call our attention to this invocation and calling down of the Holy Spirit" ("A Study of the Mass," p. 14). This might be a good time to mention the use of bells which, depending on your local traditions, you may hear a few different times during the Eucharistic Prayer, including at the Sanctus, Epiclesis, elevation of the Body and Blood of Jesus after Consecration, and after the priest receives Communion. Why bells? Perhaps especially our students will recognize the importance of bells (or similar signals), which help call our attention to a significant moment.

For me, during my school years, the lunchtime bell was always a welcome sound! Similarly, during the Eucharistic Prayer, the sound of a bell can direct our attention to important moments, such as kneeling in preparation for Jesus who is to become present, asking the Holy Spirit to make our gifts of bread and wine worthy for the sacrifice of Mass, looking upon our Lord truly present in adoration elevated above the altar, or in our immediate preparation for Holy Communion. Although some may note that the bell is a tradition from times past when people often didn't know the language of the prayers, in humble honesty, many of us will recognize that we still often need a call to attention so we don't miss these important moments.

A Prayer Asking for the Holy Spirit's Help

Although we normally think of the Epiclesis as the calling down of the Holy Spirit in anticipation of the changing of the gifts into the Most Holy Eucharist, as is often the case with the prayers of the Mass, there is even more there. Fr. Guy Oury explains, "The sign of acknowledgment and acceptance by God will be fruitful union with the sacrifice... But there can be more than one reason for this prayer. It may be to ask for acceptance of the sacrifice. It may also be to ask for fruitful participation in the sacrifice through Holy Communion. Or it may be to ask for the Consecration" (The Mass, p. 100). The bottom line is that we know we need the Holy Spirit's help! To celebrate the Mass faithfully, receive Communion faithfully, and live faithfully: for all these acts, we need the Holy Spirit.

So, the next time you hear that bell or see the priest extend his hands palms-down over the offering, remember that we are asking the Holy Spirit to sanctify the gifts and each one of our hearts!

For Reflection:

1. In preparation for your next Mass, ask the Holy Spirit's help for fruitful participation in the liturgy.
2. During the time of the Epiclesis, unite your heart with the intentions of this prayer by asking God's acceptance of the sacrifice, our fruitful participation in the sacrifice, and the fulfillment of the Consecration.
