MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I hope you have noticed the pro-life display on the east side of the church facing Reed Road. The rows of white crosses are a reminder of the many unborn humans killed by abortion. Especially after the passage of Issue 1 last November, which has enshrined abortion rights in the Ohio Constitution, we need to redouble our efforts to build a culture of life, to change hearts and minds, to pray and give witness to the sacredness of all human life, from conception to natural death. I am grateful to the members of the Knights of Columbus who erected the display last Saturday. This group has been very helpful with the pro-life efforts for our parish. At the present time, we are also planning to reorganize our parish Respect Life Committee, so please watch for further developments there.

I want to remind you that Bishop Fernandes has called upon all Catholics in the Diocese of Columbus to abstain from meat on all Fridays in reparation for sins against human life and dignity. This is a good way to witness to the sacredness of life to a culture that is in grave danger of losing awareness of the value and dignity of life. We also demonstrate our respect for life by supporting and accompanying pregnant women in need, and the organizations that help them to choose life. Let us redouble these efforts also. This is just as important as prayer and public witness. I especially encourage you to support the Women's Care Center, Pregnancy Decision Health Center (PDHC), Birthright and other similar organizations.

Finally, Monday, Jan. 21, is the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of the Unborn throughout the United States. Let us observe this solemn day with prayer and penance for the cause of human life.

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

USHERS AND GREETERS NEEDED

Consistent with St. Andrew's Eucharistic Revival's goal of encouraging greater participation in the Liturgy, anyone interested in serving as an usher or greeter is asked to please consider serving in these important laity roles. This is a great way to get to know your fellow parishioners, the Priests and Deacons. Volunteers for these ministries should be Protecting God's Children compliant.

Role of the Greeter: Be visible in the Vestibule at least 15 minutes before Mass; offer a warm hello, a kind smile and hand out music sheets to parishioners as they enter the church.

Role of the Usher: Similar to the Greeter, offer a friendly hello and also help find seating, arrange for Gift Bearers and gather the collection.

We hope to make signing up to serve in these roles easier by adding Ushers and Greeters to the Ministry Scheduler. For more information, contact Kent Simmons at simmonskent0@gmail.com or 614-309-3627.

The Mass

✚ “Do This in Remembrance of Me” ✚ A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

Part 11: Gloria

To review what we have covered so far regarding the Mass, we have recalled our baptism with the Holy Water, genuflected to honor Jesus in the tabernacle, quietly and prayerfully prepared for Mass, sung the opening hymn, made the Sign of the Cross, and humbly called to mind our sins and praised God’s mercy in the Penitential Act. Now, it is time for another one of my favorite parts of the Mass: The Gloria.

A Song of Praise

“Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.” Many of us may recognize these words from St. Luke’s Gospel as the song the angels sing in praise announcing the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem (Luke 2:14). Each year on Christmas Eve, I recall our family traditions from when I was young, including Christmas Eve Mass together as a family. One year, we went to bed very early so that we wouldn’t be too tired for the Mass at midnight. In my memory, I still hear very clearly my grandparents singing in the choir and the bells ringing with joy as we sang together the news of Christ’s birth. As we grew older and became altar servers, my brother and I would practice so that we could ring the bells steadily throughout the Gloria. It took a lot of endurance!

As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal indicates, “The Gloria in excelsis (Glory to God in the highest) is a most ancient and venerable hymn by which the Church, gathered in the Holy Spirit, glorifies and entreats God the Father and the Lamb” (GIRM, no. 53). The Gloria is full of phrases and titles from the Bible. Edward Sri explains, “one could describe this prayer, which goes back to early Christianity, as a mosaic of biblical titles for God and common biblical expressions of praise.” Sri goes on to list many Scripture references to these titles, such as “Lord Almighty” (Baruch 3:1; 2 Corinthians 6:18), “Lord God Almighty" (Revelation 4:8; 11:17; 15:3; 19:6), and "King of Glory" (see A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 43).

Three Acts

From the context of the Gloria, we are clearly singing the first part to God the Father and then the second part to God the Son. According to Sri: "The next part of the Gloria, in a sense, tells a story—the story of Christ. Like a three-act play, the Gloria sums up the story of Christ's saving work moving from 1) his coming, to 2) his redeeming death, to 3) his triumphant resurrection and ascension into heaven" (p. 44). Once again, Sri highlights many references to the Scriptures, including the Divine Sonship of Christ (John 5:17-18; 10:30-38; 2 Corinthians 1:19; Colossians 1:13; Hebrews 1:1-2); the Lamb of God (John 1:29, Revelation 5:6-14; 12:11; 17:14, among many others); and Christ's position at the right hand of the Father (Mark 16:19) (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, pp. 45-46).

Sri continues, "Notice how the whole mission of Jesus is summed up in this section of the Gloria. We move from the Son's Incarnation, to his Paschal Mystery, to his enthronement in heaven. We move from praising Jesus as the 'Only Begotten Son' of the Father who became flesh and dwelt among us; to worshiping him as the 'Lamb of God' who by his sacrifice takes away the sin of the world; to praising him in his triumph over sin and death as he is 'seated at the right hand of the Father.' Indeed, the very climax of salvation history can be summed up in the Gloria" (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 46).

Fittingly, we probably most often think of the Gloria as a hymn of praise. The Mass is our participation in the one perfect Sacrifice of Christ—the act of perfect worship of the Father. That certainly does call forth praises! The Gloria can truly be a great model of prayer for us and hopefully strengthens our readiness for the many fruits that will continue to come in the Mass. As we sing the Gloria together, it is a great lead into what comes next: The Collect, which gathers our prayers and presents our focus for the celebration of each Mass.

For Reflection:

1. Pray again with Luke's account of the angels appearing to the shepherds announcing Christ's birth and proclaiming the first line of the Gloria (Luke 2:9-14). Next time you participate in Mass and sing the Gloria, consider yourself to be singing with the angels.
2. The Book of Daniel recounts three Jewish youths praising God from the midst of a fiery furnace King Nebuchadnezzar has ordered to punish them for their steadfast faith. Reflect on this lengthy canticle (Daniel 3:51-90) and how it relates to the Gloria. As the three youths invoke all creatures to "praise and exalt God above all forever," what lines would you add from your daily life experience?
