MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Today, we begin Catholic Schools Week at St. Andrew Parish and School, and all across the Diocese of Columbus. Our Catholic schools are an extremely important means of training and forming our young people in the Catholic faith, and at the same time, giving them an excellent education that will prepare them for a lifetime of achievement and success.

Catholic Schools Week is a celebration of the greatness of our Catholic schools. We want to remember what makes Catholic schools special and different from other schools, whether public or private, and to tell our students, teachers, alumni, staff, parents and families how very proud we are of them all. It is a time to "show off" our schools and let our students and staff celebrate in fun ways. Student representatives will be speaking at Masses this weekend to tell all of us why they love St. Andrew School. This is not just an exercise in public speaking. These students are very proud of their school, and will remain so all their lives.

When I interview young adult parishioners preparing for marriage, they frequently tell me – with great pride – that they are alumni of St. Andrew School, and often of Bishop Watterson High School, St. Charles or another Catholic high school, too. Older parishioners also tell me that they are proud graduates of St. Andrew School, and mention that I can find their class picture hanging in the lower corridor! All of this proves that our Catholic elementary and high schools are great, and current and former students are very proud to claim St. Andrew School as their "alma mater."

I am also very proud of our Catholic schools, especially St. Andrew School, and I hope all parishioners will support all of our Catholic schools.

I wish one and all a happy Catholic Schools Week!

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

USHERS AND GREETERS NEEDED

Consistent with our Eucharistic Revival goal of encouraging greater participation in the Liturgy, anyone interested in serving as an usher or greeter is asked to consider serving in these laity roles. Get to know your fellow parishioners, the Priests and Deacons. Volunteers for these ministries should be Protecting God's Children compliant.

Role of the Greeter: Offer a warm welcome and hand out music sheets as parishioners and guests enter. Greeter arrives at least 15 minutes before Mass.

Role of the Usher: Provide a warm welcome and help find seating, arrange for Gift Bearers and gather the collection.

We hope to make signing up to serve in these roles easier by adding Ushers and Greeters to the Ministry Scheduler. For more information, contact Kent Simmons at simmons kent0@gmail.com or 614-309-3627.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Please join us for Eucharistic Adoration on Tuesdays from 6 to 9 p.m. Eucharistic Adoration is simply the act of being in Christ's real presence while the Eucharist is on the altar. Adorers may stay as briefly or as long as they would like.

At 8:45 p.m., Adoration concludes with Compline (end of day prayers) followed by Benediction. Make time to be in Christ's presence and open yourself to the graces that flow from the Eucharist!

Weekly Adoration Hosts: Parish Council (first Tuesday); St. Vincent de Paul (second Tuesday); Women of St. Andrew (third Tuesday); Men of the Parish (fourth Tuesday); First Called Youth Ministry (fifth Tuesday).

WELCOME OUR BLESSED MOTHER INTO YOUR HOME!

There are many sign-up opportunities to have the Blessed Mother statue in your home for prayer and devotion. Each week begins on Saturday at 5:30 p.m. and ends the following Saturday at 4:30 p.m. The statue is dropped off and picked up each week in the St. Andrew Chapel. MUSIC MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

The new year is a great time to explore new opportunities! The St. Andrew music program invites you to consider our upcoming offerings.

HANDBELL CHOIR: Now that many of you have heard our handbells, perhaps you'd like to join us and see if this ensemble might be a good fit for you. Rehearsals are held on Wednesday evenings on a seasonal basis, and introductory tutoring sessions will be offered for new ringers. No previous ringing experience is necessary, but a basic knowledge of music reading is helpful.

RESURRECTION CHOIR: This choir sings for all parish funerals and is open to both men and women. The time commitment is minimal, but the ministry is extremely meaningful. This choir is an especially good option for those who enjoy singing and have flexibility with their daytime (morning) schedule.

SUNDAY CHOIR: Our Sunday Choir rehearses on Thursday evenings and sings for the 9:15 Sunday Mass in addition to other Holy Days and special occasions. The choir is open to adult men and women and currently asks for only an eight-week commitment from singers. This group is on winter break until February.

If you are interested in attending a rehearsal, joining a group, or learning more about any of the music ensembles listed above, contact Music Director Phil Lortz at plortz@standrewparish.cc or 614-451-1839.

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me” A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✠ Part 13: The Liturgy of the Word ✠

Every Mass, after the Collect, we all sit down and begin the part of the Mass called the Liturgy of the Word. We listen to some readings from the Bible, and we stand for a special reading from the Holy Gospels. As we will see, there is a very thoughtful selection of the different readings and good reasons for why they are arranged in a particular way. As an overview, the Liturgy of the Word includes:

- First Reading, usually taken from the Old Testament
- A sung or recited Responsorial Psalm
- (On Sundays and Solemnities) A Second Reading from the New Testament (other than the Gospels)
- The Alleluia or Gospel Acclamation
- A reading from the Gospels

The Liturgy of the Word also includes the Homily, the Profession of Faith (Creed), and the Prayers of the Faithful with a concluding prayer. In the weeks ahead, we will take a closer look at each of these parts of the Liturgy of the Word

The Word of the Lord

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal states, “For in the readings, as explained by the Homily, God speaks to his people, opening up to them the mystery of redemption and salvation, and offering spiritual nourishment; and Christ himself is present through his word in the midst of the faithful. By silence [listening to the readings] and singing [responding] the people make this divine word their own, and affirm their adherence to it by means of the Profession of Faith; finally, having been nourished by the divine word, the people pour out their petitions by means of the Universal Prayer for the needs of the whole Church and for the salvation of the whole world" (GIRM, 55).

A Three-Year Cycle

How are the readings chosen each week at Mass? Is there a pattern or certain order? Yes! Sunday readings are divided into a three-year cycle. (The readings for daily Mass are on a two-year cycle with one reading from various parts of the Bible and a Gospel reading each day.) For the Sunday readings, Cycle A focuses on the Gospel according to St. Matthew, Cycle B focuses on St. Mark, and Cycle C focuses on St. Luke. The Old Testament readings correspond to the subject of the Gospel. For example, if the Gospel is about Jesus being persecuted or people trying to kill him, the First Reading might be about one of the prophets and the conflicts he had with people. Or, if the Gospel is about the Eucharist, the First Reading might be about manna, a sacrifice, a shared meal. The Gospel of St. John is used during special times of the Church year (e.g., Christmas, Lent, Easter), during the summer Sundays of Cycle B, and it also usually has a corresponding First Reading from the Old Testament.

Tying It All Together

The Second Reading, which follows a different type of arrangement, is most often from a Letter of St. Paul to a community or individual. As we move through the three-year cycle, we also sometimes have a Second Reading from one of the other New Testament letters. Instead of mixing and matching New Testament readings to the Gospel, the Second Reading generally goes in a semi-continuous reading from one Sunday to the next (for example, in year C, the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time features Galatians 3:26-29; the Thirteenth Sunday continues with Galatians 5:1,13-18; and the Fourteenth Sunday continues with Galatians 6:14-18; etc.). Reading one of the letters in this way provides an ongoing teaching on various aspects of the faith, especially the moral life.

With all these wonderful readings, connections, and various focuses among them, it is easy to see why during some periods of Church history priests would give homilies anywhere from an hour and a half to three hours in length! Aren't you glad that most preachers try to focus on just one main idea each week?

For Reflection

1. In preparation for Mass this coming Sunday, take time to pray with each of the selected readings. What connections do you see between them? Which reading attracts your attention the most? Spend more time with that reading, and allow the insights there to shape your Sunday and the beginning of a new week.
2. The psalmist praises God's Word as a lamp and light: "Your word is a lamp for my feet, / a light for my path" (Ps. 119:105). What area of your life is in need of God's light? As you bring this area before the Lord in prayer, turn to God's Word in the readings for Mass (Sunday or daily) and see how the Liturgy of the Word sheds light on your life.
