MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Today, we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord. This feast recalls how the wise men from the East were guided by the light of a star to Bethlehem, where they found Jesus, the Newborn King and paid homage to Him, offering their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. This feast reminds us that Jesus was born to be the Savior of the Nations, the Savior of all people. The Wise Men who came from distant lands to worship Christ were the first representatives of the "nations," that is, of the gentiles or foreigners, to recognize Jesus as the promised Savior and Redeemer. Today, our Holy Catholic Church embraces people of every nation, race, language, and ethnicity. This is because Jesus is the Savior of all. As the angels declared to the shepherds: "I bring you tidings of great joy, which shall be for all people. Today, in the city of David is born for you a savior, who is Christ and Lord."

I hope everyone had a good Christmas filled with peace and joy. The season of Christmas continues for another week still, and concludes next Sunday with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. In addition, the Holy Year proclaimed by Pope Francis has begun. The theme of the Holy Year is "Pilgrims of Hope." As we make our way through this new year of 2025, let us always cling to hope, and let us pray that the Savior of the Nations will establish peace on earth once more.

May God's blessings be upon you all.

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

If the call comes after business hours or on the weekend, please allow extra time as the priests may be attending to other sacramental needs.

THE INFANT OF PRAGUE STATUE, located at the far northeast corner of the Church, invites all of us to place our trust and seek God's providence in the one who is the true King of the Universe. In front of the statue, there is a supply of prayer cards that offer more information about the statue and a wealth of prayers to recite and petition God for help. The prayer cards are available for parishioners to keep. There is no need to return the cards once you've used them.

ROSARY FOR LIFE: ALL ARE WELCOME!

Join us every Saturday at 8:30 a.m. to pray the Rosary for Life. Mass begins at 9:00 a.m.. At the conclusion of the Mass, we pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet. We provide prayer aid booklets and materials.

2025 WINTER STUDY:
THE BIBLE AND THE SACRAMENTS
TUESDAYS, JANUARY 14 – MARCH 25
7:15-8:30 P.M.
NUGENT PARISH HALL

What are the sacraments? Why do we do what we do in the confessional or at Mass?
What's the point of baptizing a baby?

While Catholics know the sacraments are important, many never fully grasp how life-changing these "masterworks of God" really are. The Bible and the Sacraments unveils the mystery of the sacraments and their foundation in Sacred Scripture.

The Bible and the Sacraments is unlike any other study on the sacraments. Certainly, it looks at the basic teaching of the Church as to their meaning and origin. But it goes further. It investigates the deeper mystery of the sacraments as illuminated by Sacred Scripture.

The videos and participant guide are optional to purchase through the St. Paul Center website. If interested in learning more or purchasing, visit tinyurl.com/winter-study-2025 or use the QR code.

For additional information, contact Kathy Miller at Kathy.Miller725@gmail.com.

Is there a fee to join Tuesday Bible Study? Typically, Tuesday Bible Study is free to attend. Depending on the study, there may be an optional study guide you may want to purchase, but you do not pay to attend.

Do I have to be Catholic to attend Tuesday Bible Study? No, you do not need to be Catholic but remember that we are presenting a Catholic Bible Study. You are 100% welcome to attend!

A NOTE OF GRATITUDE

from Parishioner and Christ Child Society Member Monica Brown

For the past 20 years, St. Andrew parishioners have supported the St. Andrew Advent Giving Tree collections. The Christ Child Society layette program for marginalized moms has benefitted from your generosity. Thousands of diapers, footed sleepers, sleep sacks, hooded bath towels, and much more have been collected and donated. Over the years, St. Andrew parishioners and Christ Child Society Members Norma Johanni, Theresa Lembach, Shirley Powers, and I have sorted and delivered these beautiful items. I have many fond memories of George Mosholder, the principal of St. Tim's, allowing his eighth grade class to unload donations from my van and hike through the snow to put them in the storage room at St. Tim's Rectory.

If you would like to learn more about the Christ Child Society or are interested in becoming a member, contact me at figgiebrown@aol.com.

THE GOSPEL OF LIFE

A BRIEF SUMMARY

The prophetic papal encyclical Evangelium vitae (The Gospel of Life) was written by Pope St. John Paul II in 1995 to reaffirm the value and inviolability of every human life and to appeal to all people to respect, protect, love, and serve every human life. The following is a brief overview of this important document.

The Gospel of life is at the heart of Jesus' saving message to the world. Through the Incarnation and birth of Christ, God reveals to us the dignity of all human life. Human life, as a gift of God, is sacred and inviolable. The Son of God has united himself with every human being and desires for us to share eternal life with him. For this reason, direct attacks on human life, such as abortion and euthanasia, are always unacceptable. Yet, sadly we see new and expanding threats to human life emerging on an alarming scale. These new threats to life are often justified, protected, and even promoted by our laws and culture.

The Gospel of life is at the heart of Jesus' saving message to the world.

Not only must human life not be taken, but it must be protected with loving concern. Each of us is made in the image and likeness of God, and we reflect his glory in the world. God made the human person with the capacity to love and reason and share in a relationship with himself, the Creator. The human person bears an indelible imprint of God and is the pinnacle of all creation. The source of our dignity is not only linked to our creation by God, but to our final end and destiny to spend eternity with the Father. By accepting Christ as our Savior through the ministry of the Church, despite our sinfulness, we can begin to share in eternal life even now.

In sharing in the lowliest and most vulnerable conditions of human life—even death on a cross—Jesus shows us that life is always good.

Despite the grave threats to human life in the modern world, we, as the People of God, are called to place our faith in Jesus, the “Word of life” (1 Jn 1:1). As Christians, we have received the full truth about human life as proclaimed by the very person of Jesus. In sharing in the lowliest and most vulnerable conditions of human life—even death on a cross—Jesus shows us that life is always good. The true meaning of our lives is found in giving and receiving love. It is only through this understanding of a sincere gift of self that human sexuality and procreation reach their true and full significance.

God holds the lives of all people in his gentle and loving care, giving meaning and value to any sufferings that we bear. Even within the mystery which surrounds suffering and death, these experiences can become saving events as we unite them with Christ's own sacrifice. By making human life the instrument of our salvation, the Son of God shows us the priceless value of human life.

Although the roots of violence against life are not new—going all the way back to Genesis, when Cain took the life of his brother Abel—our modern world is now suffering under a culture of death. Scientific and technological advances and an increasingly secularized world have led to an eclipse of the value of human life. However, respect for life requires that science and technology should always be at the service of the human person and his integral development. We must reject systems of structuralized sin which value efficiency and productivity over human persons.

Governments and international institutions promote abortion and euthanasia as marks of progress and freedom. But this is a false and perverse understanding in which freedom is equated with absolute individualism. True freedom is inherently relational, recognizing that God has entrusted us to one another. As cultures and societies fail to recognize these objective truths, everything becomes relative, and all principles are called into question—even the fundamental right to life. However, the blood of Christ's sacrifice remains our constant hope.

To proclaim Jesus is to proclaim life itself. Gratitude and joy at the incomparable dignity of the human person impel us to bring the Gospel of life to the hearts of all people and make it penetrate every part of society.

Christ's gift of himself on the Cross reveals how precious life truly is and gives us the strength to commit ourselves to building a culture of life. Christ's blood, shed for us, promises that in God's plan death will be no more, and life will be victorious.

Society as a whole must respect, defend and promote the dignity of every human person, at every moment and in every condition of that person's life. Each life is a gift from God and ultimately belongs to him. He has sole authority over life and death. We are therefore called to reverence and love every human person, loving our neighbors as ourselves. It is our responsibility to care for and protect human life, especially the lives of the most vulnerable among us.

Having received the gift of the Gospel of life, we are the people of life and a people for life. It is our duty to proclaim the Gospel of life to the world. To proclaim Jesus is to proclaim life itself. Gratitude and joy at the incomparable dignity of the human person impel us to bring the Gospel of life to the hearts of all people and make it penetrate every part of society. In every child which is born, and in every person who lives or dies, we see the image of God's glory. We celebrate this glory in every human being, a sign of the living God, an icon of Jesus Christ.
