MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I am sorry to inform you that there has been another delay in the completion of our church lighting project. I previously told you that our original plan for the installation of new light fixtures was to take place last July. This was changed to late October because of supply issues. I have now been informed that the parts are further backordered. At this point, I do not know exactly when this project will be completed. We are at the mercy of the suppliers. We are also looking into alternatives. I will be very happy once this project is complete, and we are able to see clearly in a brightly lighted church!

Last August, we completed another big (and expensive) project, the new HVAC system for the school. The aging "chiller" was replaced with rooftop units that now cool the cafeteria wing of the school building.

Many months ago, I expressed great concern about the high cost of these projects and my worry that our parish reserves could be seriously depleted. The school HVAC project cost $600,000 and the church lighting project will cost $200,000. You can see why I was worried! I want to thank all those parishioners who made designated contributions to these two projects. I am always humbled by the generosity of St. Andrew parishioners and your willingness to respond to any needs.

I must make special mention of the extraordinary generosity of Marlene and Joe Berwanger. I discussed with them the fact that the greatest need at St. Andrew Parish currently was to complete these two projects and to pay for them. I was completely "blown away" by their magnificently generous response when I received their gift of $500,000 specifically for these two projects. I would have liked to have put up an engraved gold plaque to dedicate these improvements to Marlene and Joe, but they didn't desire that kind of recognition. If I would have done it, though, the plaque would have read: "Dedicated to Marlene and Joe Berwanger, without whose generosity, these projects would not have been possible." Marlene and Joe simply hope that their generosity will inspire other St. Andrew parishioners to do something similar. Thank you, Marlene and Joe, from the bottom of our hearts! St. Andrew Parish thanks you!

Again, thanks to all of you for your support and generosity to St. Andrew Parish. I am most grateful to you.

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me” A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✙ Part 45: Sanctus ✙

Last time, we took a closer look at the Preface, which in many ways sets the tone for the Eucharistic Prayer. At the end of the Preface, as the Diocese of Peoria teaches, “we join with the choirs of heaven in singing the endless song of praise. The Second Vatican Council teaches that the Liturgy is both a foretaste and promise of the heavenly Liturgy. The Liturgy on earth is united to the Liturgy in heaven, and this is made vividly clear when we join them in song. ‘Holy, Holy, Holy’ is a heavenly superlative acclamation of praise and worship” (“A Study of the Mass,” p. 13).

A Foretaste of Heaven

This next part of the Mass is called the Sanctus, perhaps more commonly referred to as the Holy, Holy, Holy. As is true with many parts of the Mass, we can find these words in the Holy Scriptures. The prophet Isaiah saw a vision of the Lord on a throne with angels singing, “Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts!” (Is. 6:3). In St. John’s vision of heaven, the four living creatures continuously exclaim, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God almighty, who was, and who is, and who is to come” (Rev. 4:8). Perhaps we will also recognize the second part of the Sanctus from the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday: “Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest” (Mt. 21:9).

Charles Belmonte recalls how the Sanctus reminds us of the beautiful presence of the angels at the Mass: “We join our own voices with those of the hosts of angels in awe, wonderment, and great enthusiasm... St. John Chrysostom describes the presence of angels during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with these words: ‘The angels surround the priest; all the temple, especially the sanctuary, is populated with celestial hosts of angels who honor God, present on the altar’” (Understanding the Mass, p. 131). Have you ever thought of this? In a very real way, the Sanctus helps to remind us that our participation in the Mass is truly a foretaste of heaven. When we gather as the Body of Christ for the Mass, united with Jesus truly present, the WHOLE Body is present there! That means every member of the Christian faithful is present with us –all those around the world, all those from various times (including those who have gone before us), and all those who are gathered together in heaven around the throne of God... including the heavenly hosts of angels! Imagine telling your friends on Monday: “All the angels of heaven were at my church on Sunday!” It’s true!

Singing with the Angels

With this wonderful image in mind, when we sing the Sanctus, we are joining in the praise the angels are singing for God. What exactly is this song of praise? Charles Belmonte relates that a certain “Cardinal Bona (seventeenth century) explains that this hymn contains three praises and two petitions: First, we extol the holiness, power, and supreme dominion of God, when we say, ‘Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of [hosts].’ Then, we praise his glory which shines forth in all creatures, when we say, ‘Heaven and earth are full of your glory.’ Third, we laud Christ by saying, ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.’ While saying this, we invite him to come to our souls with the same affection and devotion with which his Blessed Mother received him at the annunciation. The two petitions are: ‘Hosanna in the highest;’ we say it twice, asking for our salvation and everything that leads to it. The first petition is addressed to God, and the second to Christ” (Understanding the Mass, p. 133–134).

If praising the Lord with the angels is this exciting, just imagine how joyful we will be when Jesus is truly and substantially present on the altar!

For Reflection:

1. Read slowly and prayerfully through Isaiah 6 and/or Revelation 4. Place yourself in the scene the Scripture passage describes and imagine the experience of participating in worship with the angels. Allow this experience to inform your next participation in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.
2. In preparation for Mass, ask your Guardian Angel to guide you into fuller participation. Renew your awareness of the angels’ presence during the Sanctus.
