MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This week is the second week of Advent, when we light two candles on our Advent wreath. I was very happy that we "sold out" of Advent candles back in November, because that means many of you have your own Advent wreath at home. I think the lighting of the Advent wreath as the family sits down at the dinner table on a dark December evening is the most beautiful and memorable expression of the domestic church at prayer. I still remember doing this in my childhood all these years later. I can even remember the smell of the wooden matches used to light the candles!

This week is also a busy one in the life of the Church. We have two feasts in honor of Mary, the mother of Jesus, and the Mother of God. Monday, Dec. 9, is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is a Holy Day of Obligation as well as our National Patronal Feast Day. The Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of the Immaculate Conception, is the Patroness of the United State of America. Thursday, Dec. 12, is the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. It is only right that we should devote great attention to Mary in this season of Advent. Mary was conceived without sin, so that she would be the mother of the Word made flesh. She conceived by the Holy Spirit, and waited patiently throughout her pregnancy for the promised child to be born. In a similar way, we wait patiently during the season of Advent to prepare for the celebration of the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ on Christmas.

I wish you a blessed second week of Advent as we wait patiently for the birth of our Savior. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners!

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

ON THIS SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT,
light two violet candles on your Advent wreath
and ask God for the strength to be like John the Baptist,
preparing the way of the Lord.

SUPPORT ST. ANDREW PARISH AND MAXIMIZE YOUR 2024 GIVING

"All the believers were together and had everything in common." (Acts 2:44) The early Christians understood the power of unity in action. When we give, we are not alone; we are part of a community of believers who, together, build something greater than we could ever achieve on our own. St. Andrew's endowment fund, managed by The Catholic Foundation, offers a way for your charitable contributions to have a lasting impact for future generations. Transferring appreciated stocks directly to the St. Andrew Endowment Fund allows you to avoid capital gains tax, while receiving a tax deduction for your charitable gift. Your contribution helps to provide a steady, perpetual source of income for our parish beyond the weekly offertory helping protect our Faith and our Community for generations to come.

Now is the time to consider stock transfers as part of your year-end charitable planning to maximize your giving, minimize your tax liability, and secure a lasting legacy for future generations at St. Andrew.

For more details on stock transfers or other giving options, contact Christy Steffy at 614-443-8893, ext. 1100, or CSteffy@Catholic-Foundation.org.

RUN THE RACE SERVICE PROJECT WRAPS UP ON DECEMBER 12.

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me”

A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✠ Part 49: The Consecration ✠

After the calling down of the Holy Spirit, we are now ready for the Consecration. As Charles Belmonte reminds us, “What mankind has been waiting for through centuries is now going to take place among us” (Understanding the Mass, p. 138). At this moment of the Mass, the priest takes the bread and chalice of wine that will become the Body and Blood of Jesus. We hear the words of Jesus: “Take this, all of you, and eat of it, for this is my Body, which will be given up for you.” And soon after, “Take this, all of you, and drink from it, for this is the chalice of my Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in memory of me.” Let’s pause for a moment and think about what just happened in the Mass: Jesus himself, Almighty God, Second Person of the Trinity, through the hands and voice of the priest, is now truly, really, and substantially present on the altar!

Jesus Becomes Truly Present to Us

After the Consecration, the priest raises the host and chalice above the altar in a moment of silence. This elevation is a wonderful moment of prayer and adoration. We are gazing upon Jesus truly with us, and in that moment, we can adore him for all he has done for us: that he would be willing to come and dwell among us. That he would be willing to bear the burden of our sins on the cross so we could be forgiven. That he loves us so much that he remains with us in the Blessed Sacrament. Praise him!

Following the elevation, the priest places the host and the chalice on the altar, and then he genuflects in adoration to the Lord Jesus present on the altar. In this moment during the Mass, I often recall a very influential priest in my life. He shared that anytime he would make a genuflection, he would pray the words of St. Thomas from Divine Mercy Sunday, "My Lord and my God!" (John 20:28). He said that praying these words always reminds him of who is truly present in front of him, that Jesus is truly in our midst!

The Difference between Adoration and the Mass

Going even deeper on the moment of elevation, Charles Belmonte explains, "Three things are intended by the elevation of the sacred host: [1] To expose Jesus Christ, now present on the altar, to the adoration of the faithful. [2] To re-present the elevation of Jesus Christ's body on the cross... [3] To offer to God in silence this only one Victim of our salvation." Belmonte continues, "During the elevation, we should glance at the Eucharistic species in adoration. But we should also remember that we have come to Mass not only to worship Jesus Christ present in the sacrament of the altar. That could be done equally well in the Exposition and Benediction with the Blessed Sacrament. We come to Mass also to offer Jesus Christ on the cross with the priest and the entire Church, and to offer ourselves to God with Jesus Christ and as part of the Mystical Body. In other words, we come mainly to share in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. As part of the Church, we are united to Christ in the act wherein he himself offers his sacrifice to his Father" (Understanding the Mass, pp. 142-143). As we have said before during the Offertory, the Mass truly is an invitation for us to share in the sacrifice of Jesus. We will come back to that as we continue through the Eucharistic Prayer.

In Persona Christi* during the Consecration

One more thing on the Consecration: did you notice anything different about how the priest says those words of Jesus during the Consecration? As the Diocese of Peoria teaches, "The priest speaks in the first person because he is acting in the person of Christ [this is called in persona Christi]. At his ordination, the priest is configured to Christ the High Priest in such a way that he acts in his person as he continues the priestly work of Christ here on earth. It was Christ himself at the Last Supper who commanded his apostles to continue this great mystery and sacrifice of love throughout the ages. The same Word that created the heavens and the earth in the beginning, and the same Word that became flesh in the womb of Mary, is the same Word that commands the bread and wine to be the very Body and Blood of Christ" (A Study of the Mass, p. 15). For me as a priest, this is always one of the most humbling and awe-inspiring moments. I'll never forget nearly 20 years ago at my first Mass of Thanksgiving, holding the Sacred Host—truly Jesus—and marveling in wonder: "Lord, how did you just do that... with these hands... with this voice... amazing!"

For Reflection:

1. Do you associate a particular prayer with genuflecting? Take time to reflect on and select a phrase from Scripture or another prayer to enrich your practice of genuflecting in adoration before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.
2. Consider adopting the phrase "My Lord and My God!" (John 20:28) as a silent prayer during the elevation of the Eucharist. If not this phrase, then what would you like to say to Jesus at this time?
