MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Pentecost! Today, we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost, which is sometimes called the "Birthday of the Church."

The word "pentecost" means literally "the 50th day." There was a Jewish festival known as Pentecost that occurred seven weeks after the harvest began. Our Christian Feast of Pentecost commemorates the gift of the Holy Spirit that descended upon the apostles like tongues of fire, and enabled them to go out and proclaim the Gospel boldly to all people of every language. Pentecost occurs 50 days after Easter. Tradition tells us that Jesus appeared to His disciples after He rose from the dead over a period of 40 days, then He Ascended into heaven, but told them to wait for the Gift of the Spirit, which He would send. That's why we traditionally celebrate the Ascension 40 days after Easter, and Pentecost on the 50th day after Easter.

The Feast of Pentecost should remind us that we have received the gifts of the Holy Spirit already. We became temples of the Holy Spirit when we were baptized, and we were anointed with the Holy Spirit when we were confirmed. Sometimes, we may allow those gifts to go dormant because we do not use them as we should. Pentecost reminds us to stir those gifts into flame, and, like the disciples, to go out to all the world and proclaim the Good News of salvation! We have been given the gifts of Spirit; let us then use them in service to the church.

Thanks to all who have made a pledge or gift to The Appeal 2024. After the first week, we have $70,306 in pledges toward our goal of $221,413, so we are off to a good start. Only $151,108 left to go! Thank you for your generosity and support of The Appeal. It is truly very important for our Diocese of Columbus because without your support, we could not fund our seminarians formation, Catholic education, or social outreach. So thank you for your support!

May the Holy Spirit be with you all!

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me” A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✦ Part 28: The Creed as Profession of Faith ✦

What does the word Creed mean? According to Fr. Guy Oury, “A Latin word for the Creed is symbolum. Its first meaning is that of a sign, a mark of recognition by which an envoy is accredited or strangers know each other as belonging to the same group. The ‘symbol’ of faith identifies Christians. People who are not Christian cannot profess it without a lie on their part” (The Mass, p. 71). In addition to being a sign of our unity, the Creed also is a summary of core doctrines we believe in and an important part of the Mass.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal states, “The purpose of the Creed or Profession of Faith is that the whole gathered people may respond to the Word of God proclaimed in the readings taken from Sacred Scripture and explained in the Homily and that they may also honor and confess the great mysteries of the faith by pronouncing the rule of faith in a formula approved for liturgical use and before the celebration of these mysteries in the Eucharist begins” (GIRM, no. 67). In summary, Charles Belmonte says, “The symbol or Creed expresses our response and assent to what we have just heard in the readings and in the homily” (Understanding the Mass, p. 99). Having heard the truths of the Faith in the Liturgy of the Word, now we profess them in the Creed.

Stand and Profess

Why do we stand up to profess our Faith? As the Diocese of Peoria teaches, “Through the Creed, we as a community of believers stand and profess, in precise terms, the foundations of our faith. We stand for the Creed because of its importance in our Church and in our lives. Of important note is another gesture the Church asks of us as we profess the Creed. As we say ‘[and by] the Holy Spirit [was incarnate] of the Virgin Mary and became man,’ we are to bow in adoration of the Incarnation and birth of our Lord. Interestingly, on those respective solemnities (Annunciation and Christmas) we are to retain the ancient custom of genuflecting during those lines” (“A Study of the Mass,” p. 10). As we have reviewed previously, each of the gestures and postures within the liturgy has a meaning and can help us pray more deeply.

Throughout the Mass, we stand together for the principal prayers. In a very practical way, standing is another way of giving our assent, as when a crowd stands in applause. Standing adds an additional fervor to the recognition. In a similar way, standing to pray together adds an element of strength to the words we proclaim. Bowing while we recall the Incarnation acknowledges in a humble way how much we honor that significant moment in world history. Genuflecting on the Solemnities of the Annunciation and Christmas adds even more solemn praise to the joy of that moment, reflecting our adoration of our Lord who took on a human nature, becoming man for our sake.

As we profess our faith together, we are joined in a unity that began at our Baptism. “As on the day of our Baptism, when our whole life was entrusted to the ‘standard teaching,’ let us embrace the Creed of our life-giving faith. To say the Credo with faith is to enter into communion with God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and also with the whole Church which transmits the faith to us and in whose midst we believe” (CCC, no. 197). The Catechism quotes St. Ambrose: “The Creed is the spiritual seal, our hearts’ meditation and ever-present guardian; it is, unquestionably, the treasure of our soul” (CCC, no. 197).

Reflecting upon St. Ambrose’s words recalls for me the amazing gift we have been given through our Baptism, being invited into the very life of God. That is definitely worth standing up and professing together!

For Reflection:

1. Consider your posture(s) during various forms of prayer. What prompts you to stand in respect and fervor? What leads you to bow your hand in awe and wonder? Pay attention to praying with your whole self, including your bodily posture.
2. The next time you pray the Creed alone, call to mind your unity with all Christians who profess this faith.
