Join us every Saturday at 8:30 a.m. to pray the Rosary for Life. Mass begins at 9:00 a.m. At the conclusion of the Mass, we pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet. We provide prayer aid booklets and materials. On the first Saturday of each month, the St. Andrew Council Knights of Columbus leads the Rosary and Chaplet. On all the other Saturdays, the women of the parish lead the prayers.

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Sunday is the first day of September! It is hard to believe that the days of summer are past already. Not only do the days pass quickly, but the years do as well. I was reminded of this when I heard the announcement that Pope Francis has declared a Holy Year for the year 2025. My first reaction was to think it was too soon – it seems like the Jubilee year of 2000 was very recent. A "Holy Year" usually occurs every 25 years. The old saying, "tempus fugit," is true: Time flies. Anyone under the age of 30 probably has no memory of the Jubilee year of 2000, so it really is time for another Holy Year!

The theme of the Holy Year 2025 is "Pilgrims of Hope." The Holy Year will officially begin on Tuesday, Dec. 24, 2024, when the "Holy Doors" of the Roman basilicas are opened. The Holy Year is a time to experience a renewal of hope in the abundant mercy of God and the grace of forgiveness. Pope Francis has noted that people around the world need hope. The effects of the global pandemic have disrupted our social networks of support; poverty and climate change cause great concern about our future. Yet, he reminds us (quoting St. Paul), "Hope does not disappoint." Hence the theme for the Holy Year – "Pilgrims of Hope."

This may be a good time to mention that the abundant mercy of God and the grace of His forgiveness can be experienced anytime, right here at St. Andrew. No need to make a pilgrimage. Just come to confession any Saturday afternoon between 3:15-4:15 p.m. Two priests are always on duty these times to absolve your sins and show you the mercy of God.

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

WOULD YOU LIKE TO SCHEDULE A HOME VISIT WITH A PRIEST?

If you or a family member are sick, homebound or hospitalized and would like a visit from a priest, please call the parish office at 614-451-4290 and speak with Msgr. Moloney, ext. 101, or Fr. Tabi, ext. 103. Visits may include reconciliation, Holy Communion, and anointing.

IN AN EMERGENCY: If someone is near death, call the parish office at 614-451-4290 and press 3 (Sacramental Emergency Line). A priest will respond as quickly as possible. If the call comes after business hours or during weekends, please allow extra time as the priests may be attending to other sacramental needs.

DONUT SUNDAY THIS WEEKEND!

Join us this Sunday after ALL morning Masses in Nugent Parish Hall. Sponsored by Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (formerly known as RCIA), That Man Is You!, Walking With Purpose Women's Bible Study, and Women of St. Andrew (WoSA), parishioners and guests are welcome to stop by and enjoy donuts, coffee, and tea, and learn more about St. Andrew organizations, activities, and ministries.

TUESDAY EVENING BIBLE STUDY

BEGINS TUESDAY, SEPT. 3

7:15-8:30 PM // NUGENT PARISH HALL

Unpack the Mysteries of Revelation. Perhaps no book of the Bible fascinates people more than Revelation. Yet relatively few people have studied it, especially from a Catholic perspective. Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come shows how the kingdom established by Christ in His Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven.

Study presenter Jeff Cavins pulls back the veil on the rich symbolism present in Revelation. Discover what the mysterious figures and images of Revelation mean and see how Revelation is more than an apocalyptic vision of the "end times." Explore the Church's teaching on the second coming of Christ and the Last Judgment. Understand how God, the Divine Bridegroom, and the Church, His spotless bride, enter into a heavenly, holy, and mystical marriage every time we celebrate Mass.

Each evening session includes small group discussion of the weekly study questions (from an optional but recommended study guide) and a video presentation which contains expert commentary. This is an 11-week study that continues through Tuesday, Nov. 12. The optional study guide and online access to the videos is available to purchase at tinyurl.com/SAP-Revelation-2024.

MUSIC MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

Seasonal rehearsals of our parish music ensembles begin soon and new members are invited to join our ministry community! Do you have talents to share, or musical interests and abilities yet to be explored? Are you looking to reawaken your skills from music lessons long ago? Can you make a short eight-week commitment to participate in one of our parish choirs? Here are some options to consider:

THE ST. ANDREW CHOIR provides music for the 9:15 Sunday Mass (September-June) in addition to other Holy Days, holidays, and special occasions. The group is open to men and women of high school age and beyond, and rehearsals are typically held on Thursday evenings at 7:00 p.m. While music reading ability is helpful, it is not required in order to become a choir member. You must simply be able to match pitch, blend your voice with others, be available for rehearsals as well as liturgies, and have a desire to help others pray and praise God through music. The choir season consists of four "quarters" and singers may sign up for any (or all) of the sessions as they are available throughout the year. Rehearsals begin in mid-September.

THE RESURRECTION (FUNERAL) CHOIR serves the parish by singing for our parish funerals throughout the year. This choir is an especially good option for those who enjoy singing and have some flexibility with their daytime (especially morning) schedules but are unable to make the commitment of the Sunday choir. New members (both men and women) are always welcome. This choir is a meaningful way to honor our parishioners who have died, and to provide consolation to their loved ones in their time of loss.

THE ST. ANDREW HANDBELL CHOIR is the newest addition to our parish music ministry program. A basic knowledge of music reading is helpful for this group, but no previous ringing experience is necessary, and no singing is required! The Handbell Choir typically rehearses on Wednesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. Introductory and tutoring sessions are offered, as needed, for those who would like to learn the basics of ringing. Now is the time to start!

For more information about any of these music ministry opportunities, or if you would like to sit in on a rehearsal to discern the group that may be the best fit for you, contact Music Director Phil Lortz at plortz@standrewparish.cc or 614-451-1839. All are welcome!

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me” A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✦ Part 39: Incense—A Vision of Heaven ✦

More on incense? This time, we allow incense to lead us deeper into the mysteries we celebrate. We mentioned last time a couple of passages in the Book of Revelation referring to incense (Rev. 5:8 and 8:3-4). If you recall, in Revelation 5:8, St. John tells us the elders had “gold bowls filled with incense, which are the prayers of the holy ones.” In the other passage, Revelation 8:3-4, St. John describes an angel with a gold censer: “He was given a great quantity of incense to offer, along with the prayers of all the holy ones... The smoke of the incense along with the prayers of the holy ones went up before God...” Whenever I pray with these passages, they paint such a vivid picture of the worship of God in heaven. They remind me of one of my favorite truths about the Mass: united with the one sacrifice of Jesus, we are participating in the heavenly banquet.

Unity in Communion

When we speak of our core truths about the Eucharist, we begin with Jesus becoming truly present in his Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. We also rightly say the Mass makes present the one perfect sacrifice of Christ and makes it possible for us to participate in that sacrifice. As if that were not enough, we also receive the great privilege of being able to unite with Jesus in a special way through worthy reception of Holy Communion (more to come on Communion as we get to that part of the Mass). And if we are united with Jesus in Communion, we are also united with all those in Communion with him, from all times and places. That is, we experience the taste of that perfect unity of the kingdom of heaven!

For me, the details St. John describes in Revelation provide a familiar description of the Mass, with the incense and people worshipping and responding, “Amen” (Rev. 5:14). Several saints have described similar visions of heaven, especially through the Mass. St. John Chrysostom said that angels join around the altar at Mass and sing God's praises. He says when Christians participate in the Eucharist, they are in heaven, though not completely and perfectly. Blessed Angela of Foligno and St. Bridget of Sweden are others who experienced visions similar to what St. John Chrysostom describes. These saints help us realize that when we are joined in the Mass, we are joined together in a unified hymn of praise with a huge crowd! I am often energized by the realization that there are many souls joining in the sacrifice of praise, including those who have gone before us in faith.

A Foretaste of Heaven

Regarding the faithful departed, my sister died of cancer in 2011. Rebekah truly was a saintly woman who was loved greatly by her family, students, and all who knew her. Since she died, I think of her often, including what she would say or do and how she would react to a situation. As the years go by, there are times when she seems further away and is harder to remember. However, in the Mass, I always feel as if that gap is closed. Very often when I think of my sister in the Mass, she feels so close by. In the Mass, it is not hard at all to hear her singing or see her smile. Knowing what we know about unity with Christ and the graces of the Mass, this shouldn't surprise us at all!

As you might have gathered, one of my favorite gifts of the Mass is the true taste of the fullness of joy and unity of the kingdom. Our Catechism teaches, "Participation in the Holy Sacrifice identifies us with [Christ's] Heart, sustains our strength along the pilgrimage of this life, makes us long for eternal life, and unites us even now to the Church in heaven, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and all the saints" (CCC 1419). In Eucharistic Prayer I, we pray that we "who through this participation at the altar receive the most holy Body and Blood of your Son, may be filled with every grace and heavenly blessing." You may have noticed that we have jumped ahead in the Mass after having placed bread and wine on the altar. Well noted: next time, we will resume walking through the parts of the Mass. In the meantime, may the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints intercede for us, that all our receptions of Holy Communion might unite us more perfectly to Christ and one another and prepare us fruitfully for eternal life to come in heaven!

For Reflection:

1. Based on Father Luke's description of his relationship to his sister, Rebekah, during the Mass, consider your relationship to the faithful departed. Next time you participate in Mass, renew your faith in our union with all the members of the Church, living and deceased.
2. Take a closer look at the summary of the Church's teaching on the Eucharist in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, nos. 1406-1419, and see how this teaching informs your participation in Mass.
