MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

During the month of February, I'm reminded of the importance of a simple introduction or a friendly invitation, especially as we plan for the upcoming Catholic Women's and Men's Conferences.

If you recall, our Patron Saint Andrew, known as "the introducer," led his brother Simon to Jesus. Today's Gospel reading details one of the brothers' early encounters with Jesus at the Sea of Galilee (called Lake of Gennesaret). After speaking to the gathered crowd, Jesus said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon was skeptical, having no success catching fish the night before, but he agreed. To his astonishment, he caught more fish than his imagination, his net, and his boat could accommodate. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men."

With this in mind, I heartily encourage you to consider attending an upcoming conference and be "the introducer"—invite a family member or friend who's never attended to join you. Next weekend is the Catholic Women's Conference on February 15, and the following weekend is the Catholic Men's Conference on February 22. Both of these events take place at the Ohio Expo Center. The theme of the Women's Conference is "Created for This Moment." The theme of the Men's Conference is "Called to Be Saints—Men: On Mission." You will be inspired by great speakers and strengthened in faith and charity. This is the perfect opportunity for you all to become fishers of women and men.

Have a blessed week!

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

FRIENDLY REMINDER:

On Saturday, February 22, the Sacrament of Confirmation at St. Andrew Parish will be celebrated at the 4:30 p.m. Vigil Mass. With 77 confirmands as well as their family members and friends, the church will be very crowded, possibly standing room only. In addition, this Mass will probably last about 90 minutes or more. If you are a regular 4:30 p.m. Vigil Mass attendee, you may want to consider attending a Sunday Mass on February 23.

START THE WEEK WITH A SWEET TREAT!

The St. Andrew Athletics Association is hosting DONUT SUNDAY on FEBRUARY 9 in the parish hall after all Masses. Enjoy donuts, coffee, tea, and juice and learn more about St. Andrew sports. If you are a current athlete or parent, please sign up to help at tinyurl.com/SAP-sports-donuts.

REGISTRATION FOR SPRING SPORTS IS NOW OPEN! All St. Andrew School and PSR students are eligible to register for sports and activities through the association. To learn more, visit www.standrewsports.com/.

NEW MUSIC MINISTRY OPPORTUNITY!

This year's celebration of Confirmation offers a unique musical opportunity. Since our parish choir is still on winter break, we will be creating a "Confirmation Choir" specifically for this occasion. The choir is open to men and women (of high school age and older) willing to attend only TWO rehearsals and the Confirmation liturgy. So, for the many people in the pews who like to sing, but are unable to make a longer-term commitment, this opportunity is especially for you. You do not need to audition. You do not need to be able to read music. You do not need any formal music training. You will not have to sing by yourself. You only need to have an interest in singing, the ability to match pitch, and a desire to participate. You may even make some new acquaintances along the way. Best of all, participation allows you choir loft seating during the Confirmation and also fulfills your Sunday Mass obligation for that weekend.

The schedule is:

Thursday, February 13 | Rehearsal 7:00-9:00 p.m.
Thursday, February 20 | Rehearsal 7:00-9:00 p.m.
Saturday, February 22 | Warm up and Mass 3:45-5:45 p.m.

There is no commitment beyond these dates. It would be great to welcome new voices for this unique opportunity. If you're interested, please contact Music Director Phil Lortz no later than Feb. 10 at plortz@standrewparish.cc or 614-451-1839, so music can be prepared for you. Come share your gifts in a spirit of harmony!

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me” A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✚ Part 56: The Doxology ✚

Today we are in the homestretch of our journey through the Eucharistic Prayer of the Mass! At the conclusion of the Eucharistic Prayer, the priest prays some very special words: The Doxology. The glossary of our Catechism defines doxology as a “Christian prayer which gives praise and glory to God, often in a special way to the three divine persons of the Trinity” (CCC, 875). The Catholic Source Book tells us the word doxology comes from the Greek doxa, which means “glory.” In our tradition, the Gloria can be referred to as the “Greater Doxology” and the prayer “Glory Be” the “lesser doxology” (The Catholic Source Book, p. 7). There are many doxologies found throughout our prayer, including those in the Bible. For example: “For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.” (Romans 11:36). Another example is: “To him be glory now and to the day of eternity” (2 Peter 3:18).

Gratitude for Participation in Jesus’ Offering

As for the doxology of the Eucharistic Prayer, the priest raises the chalice and paten, and sings or says: “Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever.” As the Diocese of Peoria teaches, “These words of praise addressed to the Father summarize well the reality of what has just taken place: the sacrificial offering of the Son to the Father through the Holy Spirit” (A Study of the Mass, p. 16). For me as a priest, this is always a truly special moment where I feel an overlapping mix of unworthiness and joy. Elevating Jesus in the Eucharist above the altar, I am often struck with a sense of being allowed to participate in something truly amazing! Here is Jesus truly present, being offered to the Father through this moment in the Mass. This moment of elevation reminds me of Jesus on the Cross—lifted up, giving everything in love for us. As I hold Jesus up above the altar, I feel that the gesture is saying to God the Father: “Here is Jesus, your Beloved Son; here is the One who loves us perfectly and gave everything for us!”

Fr. Guy Oury mentions this “offering gesture” and how “the offering is that of the Son and at the same time that of the Church. The Mass is inseparably both—an offering made by Christ and by the Church. It is one through the other. The sacrifice of Christ makes possible the sacrifice of the Church and evokes it in response. The Church, to speak in figure, receives the offering from the hands of Christ. He instituted it for the Church, which presents it with him” (The Mass, p. 103). I’m often amazed at the humility of Jesus: in his generosity and love, he invites us through the priest to join in this moment of offering and praise!

United with the Church, Both on Earth and in Heaven

Charles Belmonte breaks down the words of this doxology, highlighting the ways we are invited into this moment through Jesus, “Through him: Through Jesus’ mediation, we have access to God... With him: We are children of God, through the adoption Christ merited for us... In him: There is one and the same life in him and in us... In the unity of the Holy Spirit: The Church is a unity brought together by the Holy Spirit. He joins us together as believers and gives us the life of grace by which we become children of God. He dwells in us, enabling us to offer the sacrifice of praise to God, together with the entire Church” (Understanding the Mass, p. 162).

This moment of the Mass brings us to the great culmination of the Eucharistic Prayer and the one perfect sacrifice of Jesus. As some saints have reminded us, in a very real way we are joined with the angels and saints in the heavenly liturgy. As Jesus is offered to the Father through the Holy Spirit, it seems that all of creation should burst forth together in praise and joy. How can we hold back in the midst of such a wonderful gift? As we will see, we all have a response at this moment that praises God: The Great Amen!

For Reflection:

1. When you pray the “Glory Be,” imagine the elevation of the paten and chalice during the Eucharistic Prayer, and unite your prayer with the offering of Christ.
2. As you make decisions about what you give and what you receive today, consider how these acts of offering do or do not glorify God. At moments when you receive or give human praise, direct your heart to give glory to God.
