MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Today is the First Sunday of Lent: The penitential season began on Ash Wednesday and continues until the Paschal Triduum begins on Holy Thursday. Today's Gospel tells us that Jesus was "led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil." Jesus' testing in the desert should be the model for our own Lenten penance. The season of Lent is 40 days, which corresponds to the length of time Jesus spent in the desert. But that should not be the only thing our Lenten observance has in common with Jesus' desert experience. Not only did Jesus fast for 40 days, He was also alone. He was all by Himself, with no one to turn to for help, comfort, or consolation. Furthermore, He was alone with His temptations. And Jesus was truly tempted. He was tempted in every way that we are, yet He never sinned. He truly struggled with His temptations, but He overcame them. He achieved mastery over them. I believe that our Lenten observance should reflect Jesus' 40 days in the desert in this way, also. Namely, that we face our temptations head on, struggle against them, and with discipline and courage, and at last, attain mastery over them. To do this, we must honestly admit where we are vulnerable, and acknowledge our weaknesses that habitually lead into sin. This is what we must confront and deal with during Lent.

All the asceticism and self-denial we otherwise practice during Lent is of little value if we never tackle our temptations. Unlike Jesus, however, we are not alone with our temptations, because He is with us. And He knows what it is like to be tempted. He experienced temptation, He overcame it, and He will help you to overcome it, also. This Lent, may we face our temptations, and by the power of the Cross of Christ, overcome them once and for all.

Your Pastor,

Monsignor Stephan Moloney

RESPECT LIFE

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM: Our Prayers Make a Difference

Beginning March 25, the Feast of the Annunciation, the St. Andrew Respect Life Ministry invites parishioners to participate in a Spiritual Adoption Program, to pray every day for nine months for an unborn baby who is at risk of abortion.

More than 4,000 babies lose their lives to abortion each day. It is these babies you are being asked to "adopt." You may adopt a child individually or as a family. You will be asked to name the child for whom you will be praying, thereby giving the baby the humanity he or she deserves.

You will be asked to pray for your unborn child daily for nine months. You will receive monthly reports through the parish bulletin. There are millions of unborn babies at risk of abortion who desperately need your prayers. Won't you please spiritually adopt one and share the love for life that God has given you?

Parishioners can pray on their own (i.e. the Rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet), pray the Rosary with the parish on Saturdays at 8:30 a.m., or pray the prayer below daily. This is a great addition to your Lenten practice.

Spiritual Adoption Prayer:

*Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I love you very much.
I beg you to spare the life of the unborn child that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.*

~ Venerable Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

»ROSARY FOR LIFE: ALL ARE WELCOME! Join us every Saturday at 8:30 a.m. to pray the Rosary for Life. Mass begins at 9:00 a.m. At the conclusion of the Mass, we pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet. We provide prayer aid booklets and materials. On the first Saturday of each month, the St. Andrew Council Knights of Columbus lead the Rosary and Chaplet. On all the other Saturdays, the women of the parish lead the prayers.

The Mass

“Do This in Remembrance of Me” A Step-By-Step Walk Through the Mass

Fr. Luke Spannagel

✠ Part 60: The Lord’s Prayer, Part II ✠

We continue diving into the great treasure of the Our Father. I once met a priest who was giving a week-long retreat focusing on the Lord’s Prayer. He had prepared to give two or three conferences a day over the course of a week. As he prepared his notes from meditations in prayer, he only got to the first two words: “Our Father.” As Edward Sri says, “The word Our in this prayer also is significant. It points to the deep unity we have together by virtue of our common heavenly Father. All who are united in Christ are truly brothers and sisters in him. In Christ, Jesus’ Father has become our Father and we all are the Father’s children in the covenant family of God” (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 124). Sit back and think for even a few minutes about what that means. God is our Father; we are his children. Amazing! If you ever need a meditation or find yourself with a few extra minutes to think and pray, just think about those two special words: “Our Father.”

Three Prayers in One

As for the rest of the Lord’s Prayer, according to the Catholic Encyclopedia, “Essentially, it consists of three prayers for the glory of God (hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done) and an expression of the extent of that glory (on earth as it is in heaven), followed by three requests (for food, forgiveness, and freedom from temptation) and a final plea for deliverance from evil, that is, moral evil" (Catholic Encyclopedia, p. 358). Focusing on the petition for food, The General Instruction of the Roman Missal states, "In the Lord's Prayer a petition is made for daily bread, which for Christians means principally the Eucharistic Bread, and entreating also purification from sin, so that what is holy may, in truth, be given to the holy" (GIRM, 81).

The Seven Petitions of the Lord's Prayer

While so much could be said about each of the seven petitions, Charles Belmonte gives us a brief overview of each one:

1. Hallowed by thy name. "It is not that we think to make God holy by our prayers; rather we are asking God that his name be made holy in us... [W]e desire to give glory to God: that he may be loved and feared by all; that his holiness, his goodness, and his wisdom may be acknowledged everywhere."
2. Thy kingdom come. "In the second petition, we desire that God may reign in everybody's will. We ask that we all may happily reach our destination in his Kingdom. We pray that the Kingdom promised to us by God will come, the kingdom won by Christ's Blood and passion..."
3. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. "In the third petition, we pray that all men serve and obey God on earth as he is served by the angels in heaven; and that all may always avoid sin and do what is pleasing to God..."
4. Give us this day our daily bread. "In the fourth petition, we ask for whatever is necessary for nourishment, clothing, and other temporal needs; for our daily food, which for a Christian means also the Body of Christ, and for the forgiveness of sins. Thus, we can understand this petition in a spiritual and in a literal sense..."
5. Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. "Once we requested the needed sustenance from God's magnanimity, we ask him pardon for our sins. To be reminded that we are sinners and forced to ask forgiveness for our faults is prudent and sound..."
6. Lead us not into temptation. "In the sixth petition, we ask God to keep us from falling into temptations. We should not trust our own strength; we should fear our malice and lack of constancy, lest these induce us to wander away from his grace and friendship."
7. Deliver us from evil. "In the seventh petition, we ask for deliverance from the evils which afflict us and may set us away from his fatherly love... We ask to be liberated from the guilt and punishment of sin, from all snares of the devil and the world set up against us." (Understanding the Mass, pp. 170-172).

There can be no doubt that this is the greatest prayer. Jesus himself gave it to us. It reveals our special relationship with God. It thoroughly covers so many aspects of our lives. It prepares us with a healthy and real longing for union with God, through Holy Communion on earth and eternally in heaven! No wonder this prayer is found at the heart of the Mass!

For Reflection:

1. Using a prayer journal or other medium, pray with and write or draw your response to each of the petitions in the "Our Father." Allow this way of prayer to integrate your own experiences and intentions with those of all who are united in praying, "Our Father..."
2. Deepen your appreciation of this central prayer by studying, individually or with others, the Catechism of the Catholic Church on the "Our Father" (CCC 2759-2865).
